

The Legal Services Commission produces a series of public information leaflets, which cover key areas of the civil law in England and Wales.

The leaflets in this series give an outline of legal rights. They are not a complete guide to the law and are not intended to be a guide to how the law will apply to every individual or to any specific situation. Anyone with a legal problem will need to get more information or personal advice to work out the best way to solve it. For sources of information and advice see the 'Further help' sections under each leaflet. Alternatively, people can contact Community Legal Advice to find quality assured legal help.

These leaflets are provided for free, and are available in English, Welsh, Braille and Audio. Copies for display & distribution purposes can be ordered in several ways:

- By contacting your regional contact
- By phoning the LSC Leaflet Line on 0845 3000 343
- By emailing LSCLeaflets@ecgroup.uk.com

Individual copies can be downloaded from the website www.communitylegaladvice.org.uk
